Think Spring!

The warmer months will be here before we know it! The Township began offering a limited number of Pickleball classes two summers ago with the addition of the new court at Hadden Park. Last year, class offerings tripled!

Help us plan classes for 2026!

Head over to our website and complete the Pickleball Survey so we can prepare and plan for the upcoming season's classes.

Turning Tragedy into Prevention: Protecting Our Children from Online Threats The Story of James and One Family's Path from Heartbreak to Purpose

Women United and the Lake County ADAMHS Board have partnered to bring you this compelling FREE speaker series featuring Tim and Tamia Woods, who will share the story of their son, James, a 17-year-old who took his life following online exploitation, and their mission to turn tragedy into awareness and prevention.

The program will be followed by a panel discussion featuring expert Emily Fagan-Zirm from the Internet Crimes Against Children (ICAC) and Officer Dan Radigan of the Mentor Police Department, offering practical insight into current online threats and how families can better protect their children. Kim Fraser, the Executive Director of the Lake County ADAMHS Board will serve as the evening's moderator.

Thursday, April 2 | 6:30 pm - 8:30 pm

Andrews Osborne Academy (auditorium), 38588 Mentor Ave, Willoughby

Advance Registration Required: Scan QR Code now to register and to learn more about all speakers and panelists or visit uwlc.org/wu-online-exploitation.
